

Simple and Complete Predicates

Lyrics by GrammarFlip

GrammarFlip

Just one verb keeps it simple, short, and sweet;
Add more words to make it complete!
Actions happen, clear and true;
Simple or complete – it's up to you!

"They run," that's all we need;
A simple predicate - a basic deed.
But "They run quickly, down the hill,"
Makes it complete—yeah, it adds some thrill!

Just one verb keeps it simple, short, and sweet;
Add more words to make it complete!
Actions happen, clear and true;
Simple or complete – it's up to you!

"She laughs," – it's simple, crisp, and bright;
But "She laughs out loud, late at night,"
Adds more words, and then you'll see.
A complete predicate – that's the key!

Just one verb keeps it simple, short, and sweet;
Add more words to make it complete!
Actions happen, clear and true;
Simple or complete – it's up to you!

"The sun shines," – it's just what it does;
A simple predicate, just because.
But "The sun shines warmly all around,"
Is a complete predicate that you just found!

Just one verb keeps it simple, short, and sweet;
Add more words to make it complete!
Actions happen, clear and true;
Simple or complete – it's up to you!

