

Verb Phrases

Lyrics by GrammarFlip

A verb phrase is what we see;
A main verb and a helping verb, in harmony.
They give us action or a state of being;
They work together just as a team.

She is running through the park;
"Is" helps "running," – yeah it does its part.
The helping verb comes before the main
To make a verb phrase - yeah that's its game!

A verb phrase is what we see;
A main verb and a helping verb, in harmony.
They give us action or a state of being;
They work together just as a team.

They were reading all through the night;
"Were" helps "reading," keeping it tight.
Verb phrases work to set the tone,
Connecting the action—it's clearly shown!

A verb phrase is what we see;
A main verb and a helping verb, in harmony.
They give us action or a state of being;
They work together just as a team.

They were reading all through the night;
"Were" helps "reading," keeping it tight.
Verb phrases work to set the tone,
Connecting the action—it's clearly shown!

A verb phrase is what we see;
A main verb and a helping verb, in harmony.
They give us action or a state of being;
They work together just as a team.

He could have called before the storm;
"Could have" helps "called" to take its form.
Helping verbs help the main verb out;
Together they make verb phrases – yeah there is no doubt!

A verb phrase is what we see;
A main verb and a helping verb, in harmony.
They give us action or a state of being;
They work together just as a team.

He could have called before the storm;
"Could have" helps "called" to take its form.
Helping verbs help the main verb out;
Together they make verb phrases – yeah there is no doubt!

A verb phrase is what we see;
A main verb and a helping verb, in harmony.
They give us action or a state of being;
They work together just as a team.

