

Indirect Objects

Lyrics by GrammarFlip

An indirect object answers "to whom" or "for;"
It's not the main thing, but it adds a little more!
It comes between the verb and direct object.
Yeah, uh huh, that's where it sits.

I gave my brother a shiny gift;
The gift is what he gave - it's the direct object.
But "brother's" indirect—it's who gets the gift;
It sits between the verb and the direct object!

An indirect object answers "to whom" or "for;"
It's not the main thing, but it adds a little more!
It comes between the verb and direct object.
Yeah, uh huh, that's where it sits.

He baked his mom a birthday cake;
"Cake's" the direct the object—it's what he baked.
"Mom" is indirect—it shows for whom he baked;
She's the indirect object for whom he baked the cake!

An indirect object answers "to whom" or "for;"
It's not the main thing, but it adds a little more!
It comes between the verb and direct object.
Yeah, uh huh, that's where it sits.

We showed our class a brand-new game;
"Game's" the direct object—it's the thing we explained.
"Class" is indirect—it comes in between
The verb and the direct object just doing their thing.

An indirect object answers "to whom" or "for;"
It's not the main thing, but it adds a little more!
It comes between the verb and direct object.
