

Correlative Conjunctions

Lyrics by GrammarFlip

GrammarFlip

Not just one, but always two;
Correlative conjunctions stick like glue!
They pair up words and make them flow:
Both...and, either...or – now you know!

Both cats and dogs love to play;
Correlative conjunctions link them that way.
Either you read or you write tonight.
Two ideas together make the sentence tight!

Not just one, but always two;
Correlative conjunctions stick like glue!
They pair up words and make them flow:
Both...and, either...or – now you know!

Not just one, but always two;
Correlative conjunctions stick like glue!
They pair up words and make them flow:
Both...and, either...or – now you know!

Both cats and dogs love to play;
Correlative conjunctions link them that way.
Either you read or you write tonight.
Two ideas together make the sentence tight!

Not only smart, but also kind;
Correlative conjunctions match words that bind.
Neither the rain nor the snow will stay.
They work in pairs to show us the way!

Not just one, but always two;
Correlative conjunctions stick like glue!
They pair up words and make them flow:
Both...and, either...or – now you know!

Either we win or we lose the game;
Correlative conjunctions – yeah that's their name.
Both laughter and cheers fill the air.
These paired-up words are everywhere!

Not just one, but always two;
Correlative conjunctions stick like glue!
They pair up words and make them flow:
Both...and, either...or – now you know!
